Hi Stephanie,

As a cooperating agency, I thought EPA would be interested and may want to participate in the September 7, 2012 kick off meeting (other cooperating agencies will be participating, according to the list of invited stakeholders). Have you seen any of these documents from Reclamation?

Let's talk after you've had a chance to review these documents. I am sending comments to Reclamation on these documents later today, and will send you a copy of our comments. (we sent a prior round of comments last month)

FYI, the notice of intent was published in March 2012 (77 Fed. Reg. 18858 (March 28, 2012)).
